

Guy Moerenhout, owner of the Abarth Museum at Lier (Belgium) will start at the Legend Boucles de Spa 2012!

Who isn't dreaming about it? Trying to win Belgian most famous historic rally event like the Legends Boucles de Spa? This dream will come true for Guy Moerenhout in 2012! After setting up the "dreamteam" in 2010, with a car for Freddy Loix and Francois Duval), Guy Moerenhout will create a team with the best Flemish regularitydrivers and codrivers in order to win the Classic-category of the following Legend Boucles de Spa!

Project « RED ATTACK by Guy Moerenhout Racing »

"Some months ago, I got this idea to drive in the Legend Boucles de Spa with a good codriver in order to win this rally in the Classic category", announce Guy. "But, my codriver Filip De Munck had the same idea. He wants also to driver. So, we start to search some good codrivers, because in Spa, a good codriver is an essential thing . We contacted the 'Vanoverschelde-brothers', 2 good regularity-codrivers in Belgian. After a short meeting, they said 'yes' to Project Red Attack by Guy Moerenhout Racing.

Lada

Maximum 4 cars, real LADA Group 2 Cars!, will drive in our team, so we are looking to enlarge the current 'Russian' team.

Actual information

The next edition will be held from 16th to 18th of February 2012. You can follow our team on www.redattack.tk or on our www.gmr-abarth.com!

See you around Spa!
